+ Applicants are responsible for making separate application and paying separate fees to the county for the Butler County Planning Commission review. The Butler County Planning Commission must review all plans after the township Planning Commission conducts their review and after any township concerns are addressed.

* The township must have received the county Planning Commission review comments or thirty days from the county meeting must have passed before the Board of Supervisors can consider the plan at their meeting.

Applicant shall give written extension of time for approval or timeline must be altered.

All 2023 dates are only probable and are subject to change.

PLEASE NOTE: Franklin Township is not responsible for the accuracy of or any changes to the Butler County Planning Commission schedule shown here.
